

Sinclair Names Barry Faber VP/General Counsel for Sinclair Television

BALTIMORE, Aug. 31 /PRNewswire/ -- Barry Faber was named Vice President & General Counsel of Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: SBGI), it was jointly announced today by David Smith, CEO of Sinclair, and Barry Drake, CEO of the Sinclair Television and Radio divisions. Faber was formerly the Associate General Counsel of the Television and Radio divisions. In his new capacity, he will report to Mr. Smith and Mr. Drake and secondarily to David Amy, CFO of Sinclair Broadcast Group.

Mr. Smith commented, "I am very pleased to promote Barry to General Counsel. He has been an integral member of the Sinclair acquisition and divestiture team since he arrived in 1996. His expertise in acquisition-related and station-level legal matters makes him the ideal person for the job."

Mr. Drake said, "I have worked with Barry for three years in the Radio division, during which time he did an excellent job in handling the division's legal affairs. He was a significant contributor in both the building and managing of our radio group, and I look forward to similar results from him going forward."

Mr. Faber stated, "I am quite pleased with the recognition of my performance that this promotion represents. Sinclair has always been a dynamic company that provides a challenging work environment and opportunities for personal growth. I look forward to helping Sinclair move into new areas of growth, such as the Internet and digital television."

Prior to joining Sinclair in 1996, Faber was special counsel to Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson in the Washington, D.C. office. Faber practiced corporate law for Fried, Frank for nine years. A graduate of the University of Virginia and the University of Virginia School of Law, Faber lives in Baltimore County, Maryland with his wife Susan, and their children, Emily and Alex.
