Baltimore (October 13, 2008) -- Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: SBGI), the “Company” or “Sinclair,” today reported preliminary net broadcast revenue results for the three months ended September 30, 2008. On September 22, 2008, the Company revised its third quarter outlook for net broadcast revenues to be approximately flat to third quarter 2007 net broadcast revenues of $149.4 million, including $8.0 million of political advertising revenues. We now report that preliminary results for the third quarter 2008 reflect net broadcast revenues of $150.1 million, including $8.7 million in political advertising revenues.

David Smith, President and CEO of Sinclair, commented, “The deepening economic turmoil that has recently thrown the financial markets into a state of crisis, diminished equity market values, dried up liquidity, and slowed advertising spending levels, has caused us to reconsider our value opportunities. During the third quarter, we repurchased in the open market 2.7 million shares of our class A common stock, $22.3 million face value of our 8% senior subordinated notes and $12.0 million face value of our 6% subordinated convertible bonds.”

Mr. Smith continued, “Due to the on-going volatility in the marketplace and its impact on advertising budgets, we are expecting net broadcast revenues for the fourth quarter 2008 to be down mid to high single digit percents as compared to the fourth quarter 2007. During the fourth quarter, we are expecting to receive an approximate $17.2 million Federal income tax cash refund. While we invested $11.4 million, net of cash distributions, in various ventures in the third quarter and expect to invest approximately $27 million in the fourth quarter, we are reducing our expectations for additional investments in 2009.”

The Company will provide more detailed 2008 guidance when it releases its final third quarter results on November 5, 2008.
