Ring of Honor Enters into Broadcast Agreement with L'Equipe 21 in France

BALTIMORE, MD (September 21, 2015) - Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: SBGI) (the "Company") announced that its professional wrestling promotion, Ring of Honor Wrestling ("ROH"), has signed a 6-month international broadcast deal with L'Equipe 21, a free, sports-based television channel in France. ROH premiered its debut episode on L'Equipe 21 on September 18th. The announcement was made by Joe Koff, Chief Operating Officer of Ring of Honor Wrestling.

"Ring of Honor is incredibly excited and honored to bring our show overseas to France under our new deal with L'Equipe 21," commented Mr. Koff. "Our European fans that enjoy us on rohrestling.com and on our YouTube channel are constantly giving us feedback that they want Ring of Honor on their television as well. This new deal gives Ring of Honor its first step into the global broadcast market as we continue to expand our availability to fans across the world."

ROH also recently announced additional domestic broadcast deals with WMCN in Philadelphia, PA, WMYD in Detroit, MI, and WCCB in Charlotte, NC to begin airing weekly Ring of Honor episodes this fall.
