SINCLAIR COMMUNICATIONS, INC. CRAIG MILLAR NAMED REGIONAL MANAGER

Craig Millar has been appointed Regional Manager for Sinclair Communications, Inc. based in Nashville. He will begin his job simultaneously with Sinclair's takeover of its new Nashville television properties WZTV and WUXP expected later this month under a Local Marketing Agreement. In addition to his responsibilities as Regional Manager for the Sinclair stations WTTV in Indianapolis, WTTO and WABM in Birmingham and WDBB in Tuscaloosa, Craig will function as Vice President/General Manager of Sinclair's new Nashville stations.

Barry Baker, CEO-designate of Sinclair Communications, Inc., in making the announcement said, "Getting someone of Craig's caliber is an enormous win for Sinclair. He has been a successful General Manager and General Sales Manager at affiliates for ABC, NBC and Fox stations for over seventeen (17) years. His entrepreneurial spirit in stations combined with his prior experience in a corporate sales and marketing role with a major broadcasting company makes him a superior find for our expanding revenue oriented company."

Craig commented. "I've admired Sinclair's growth from afar. The people in their organization are some of the brightest and best in the business. They have the vision and staying power to be one of the survivors in this rapidly consolidating industry. I'm anxious to get started".

Craig Millar is a native of Canada. He was educated in the U.S. at Ithaca College and Cornell University. He volunteered for service in Vietnam and was highly decorated including two Bronze Stars. His broadcast career began in radio in upstate New York and he rose quickly through management ranks in both radio and television culminating with his most recent job as President and General Manager of KTBC and KVC in Austin, Texas for both New World and Fox Broadcasting.

Craig is married to Anne Millar and has a son Eric. He had served on numerous trade industry associations and boards.
